

Ken's Kapers

Reflection: Mk 13: 1-11. When we look around us at society today, which has made brilliant advances in some areas, but in others, seems headed for destruction. Our reading today finds Mark concluding his spill on this subject with a sermon on the ending of time, "These are the beginning of birth pains....You must be on your guard", He states. The people, loved to hear Jesus teach, but this was a little heavy for them to take in. "When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come", he warned them. Across the world, Christians continue to face opposition, trials, and even execution because they are Christians. And even in this country, it seems that the secular agenda is pushing forward, limiting and restricting Christians. It may not be long before some of us could be arrested for preaching the Bible in our own country, because it is so offensive to our sinful modern agenda. We are to bear up with the expectation of the end of time. We are asked to trust in God, and keep doing what he has given us to do! The end hasn't come yet! The 'Good News' has to reach out to all peoples so that as many as possible may be saved. It's the gospel that gives us hope and peace in the midst of these persecutions. The promise is that, whatever may happen now, He (God), is still in control. We bear witness to His presence through the Holy Spirit, and the good news that Jesus Christ has died for our sins, that we are reconciled with God, and that one day Jesus will return and we will be with him forever, and that we will share in the glory of his Kingdom forever! Hallelujah! Blessings, Ken.

Morning Tea after Services

After lengthy discussions the Congregational meeting held on the 28th October 2018 resolved that the base line for morning tea would be bought biscuits with tea or coffee after the 10am service. Bought biscuits would also be available after the 8:00am service. Any person on the morning tea roster who wants to bring extra home cooking would be welcome to do so. We will actively encourage more people to be a part of the morning tea rosters.

In every relationship we face this same test: Will I exalt myself, or will I humble myself?
